

Name Change Announcement

May 16 2007

From July 1st 2007 Stone+Partners will change name to S+P Lawyers. Our new name reflects our new company structure as we move from a partnership to an incorporated practice.

Becoming S+P Lawyers will not alter or affect the services we offer to our clients. In fact we retain the same committed team, same quality legal service and same office locations in Lismore and Byron Bay. Even our logo remains similar.

The name change means from July 1st 2007 the Firm's partners Allan Cowley, Stuart Garrett and Ben Carroll will become directors of the new corporate practice.

As S+P Lawyers we retain the same office phone numbers and can still be reached on our general number 1300 277 000. However, please note from July 1st will have a new website address www.splawyers.com.au

S+P Lawyers continues with the tradition of Stone+Partners offering the highest quality legal services for Business, Property transactions, Personal Injury matters, Wills and Estate Planning, Family Law and Elder Law.

For more information on our name change please see the Question and Answer document on this website or feel free to give us a call on 1300 277 000 and ask to speak with one of the Firm's partners. We'd love to hear from you.
